Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my interest in the Technical Support position. With a robust background in ICT and technical sales, along with a BS in Computer Engineering, I am excited about the opportunity to contribute my skills and experience to your team.

In my role as an ICT Technical Officer/Sales Officer at CK Galvanizing Corporation, I managed communication systems and optimized network connectivity, which included installing and configuring wireless networking equipment to ensure seamless guest and staff connectivity. My experience in technical support involved evaluating connectivity issues and ensuring optimal system performance, which directly aligns with the requirements of the Technical Support role.

I also have experience in system optimization, having assisted with the design and implementation of new software and features to enhance operational efficiency. My work included providing training and support to new users, ensuring effective technology use, and overseeing system security and error troubleshooting.

My technical skills extend to hardware, software, and network troubleshooting, supported by a professional training certification in HTML and CSS from Udemy. Furthermore, my experience in logistics coordination and client liaison has strengthened my ability to communicate effectively and maintain strong client relationships.

Additionally, my previous roles have equipped me with a comprehensive understanding of process engineering, quality assurance, and inventory management, all of which contribute to my well-rounded expertise in technical and operational support.

For more details on my professional background, please visit my online resume and LinkedIn profile, accessible from the top right corner of this cover letter.

I am enthusiastic about the opportunity to join and apply my technical expertise and customer service skills to support your team and enhance your operations. Thank you for considering my application. I look forward to the possibility of discussing how I can contribute to your team's success.

Best Regards,

Michael Angelo Boado
